

AFOA OF ATLANTIC CANADA

Fall 2011 Conference and AGM

Delta Halifax Hotel Halifax, NS
November 3—4, 2011

“AFOA Atlantic conferences are the best forum for me to Learn, Network with my peers & Discover best practices I can bring back to my job and personal life” .. Past conference delegate.

This conference addresses many of the financial, capacity building and operations management issues faced by you and your community or organization from an Atlantic perspective. You will also learn about new policies, processes and reporting initiatives. If you work in the area of finance or management, this is a great opportunity to network and learn. Students, elders and elected officials are also encouraged to attend.

Who should attend?

Delegates to our conferences include Aboriginal managers and Financial staff, students and elders, such as:

- Financial Managers and officers in First Nations communities and organizations
- Program managers, Band Administrators, Economic Development Officers
- Aboriginal Business Owners
- Chiefs, Councillors and other Elected representatives
- Management consultants working with Aboriginals
- Federal and Provincial government representatives
- Band and Tribal Council members, senior executives and decision makers
- Financial and Management students.

AGENDA TOPICS INCLUDE:

- A new special relationship between AFOA and the University of New Brunswick
- Update on financial and policy issues in Atlantic Canada, including the proposed changes to Social Development funding.
- AFOA and your professional future
- An overview of the new CAPA (Certified Aboriginal Public Administrator) program
- Values & Ethics in the Aboriginal workplace
- And much more.. Including opportunities to network with your colleagues in First Nations Management.

(This agenda is under development and content may change based on available presenters)

Our special low hotel rate can be extended through the weekend so you can stay longer and enjoy beautiful Halifax!
