

AFOA OF ATLANTIC CANADA

Fall 2009 Conference and AGM

Delta Prince Edward Charlottetown, PEI
September 22—23, 2009

Working Together for First Nations Financial and Management Success !

First Nations management is becoming more complex as administrations take on more responsibilities in areas of governance and the financial policies and procedures change. This conference addresses many of the financial, comprehensive community planning and operations management issues faced by you and your community from an Atlantic perspective. If you work in the area of finance or management this is a great opportunity to network and learn. Students and elders in these areas are also encouraged to attend.

Who should attend?

Delegates to our conferences include Aboriginal managers and Financial staff, students and elders, such as:

- Financial Managers and officers in First Nations communities and organizations
- Program managers, Band Administrators, Economic Development Officers
- Aboriginal Business Owners
- Chiefs, Councillors and other Elected representatives
- Management consultants working with Aboriginals
- Federal and Provincial government representatives
- Band and Tribal Council members, senior executives and decision makers
- Financial and Management students.

AGENDA TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Audit Preparation
- INAC Transfer payments policy revisions
- INAC intervention policies
- Update on new reporting requirements
- Youth in Financial Management
- Success stories
- Fraud Prevention
- And much more.. Including opportunities to network with your colleagues in First Nations Management.

(This agenda is under development and content may change based on available presenters)
