

Shannin Metatawabin, CEO

Organization: National Aboriginal Capital Corporations Association (NACCA)

Bio: Shannin Metatawabin is Cree/Inninow from Fort Albany First Nation of the Mushkegowuk Nation. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in political science from Carleton University and an Aboriginal Economic Development certificate from the University of Waterloo and is ICD.D from Rotman School of Management. He previously served as the Executive Director of the Ontario First Nations Technical Services Corporation and as the Manager of Aboriginal Affairs and Sustainability with De Beers Canada.

Organization Profile: The National Aboriginal Capital Corporations Association (NACCA), is the national association for a network of Aboriginal Financial Institutions (AFIs) dedicated to stimulating economic growth for Aboriginal people in Canada. The AFI network provides financing and support to First Nations, Métis and Inuit businesses. NACCA is membership-driven and is committed to the needs of Aboriginal Financial Institutions and the Aboriginal businesses that they serve.

Shannin Metatawabin, CEO

National Aboriginal Capital Corporations Association

Suite 908 - 75 Albert Street, Ottawa ON K1P 5E7

T: 613-688-0894 W: www.nacca.ca

<http://nationtalk.ca/story/nacca-launches-their-new-corporate-relations-video-that-describes-economic-reconciliation>

<http://www.cbc.ca/player/play/973724739690>