

Domenic Natale
Vice President, Indigenous (Trust and Investment) Services, TD Wealth, Toronto

As Vice President and National Lead, Indigenous Services, TD Wealth, Domenic is responsible for developing strategic business opportunities nationally for the Private Trust and Investment businesses and where appropriate, in conjunction with other TD Bank Group business partners. Additionally, Domenic provides direct support to the front line staff and often remains involved in maintaining the on-going relationships, frequently attending meetings in the community along with the Lead Relationship Person.

Domenic holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Toronto, the Canadian Securities Course (ICB), Senior Trust Officer Designation (The Royal Trust Corporation of Canada), General Manager Executive Training Certification, (Royal Bank of Canada) and the Executive Leadership Academy Certification (TD/Ivey School of Business). Domenic has accumulated over 38 years of experience in the Trust industry while working with 3 different Financial Institutions and experiencing three corporate mergers.

Throughout his career, Domenic has held positions of varying responsibility including direct management of specific key client relationships and various Business Management positions leading successful teams. As well, Domenic held various Executive positions including serving as a Director on the Board of The Canada Trust Company.

Domenic is a long standing and proud member of the Aboriginal Financial Officers Association (AFOA), is a member and serves on the Advisory Board of the National Aboriginal Trust Officers Association (NATOA) and sits on the Advisory Board of Nation Talk, Canada's Largest Aboriginal Owned Newswire and Employment Service.